I’m a tenant, can I still order an installation?

Installation · https://quickline.co.uk/knowledge/im-a-tenant-can-i-still-order-an-installation/

Yes, you don't have to own your home to order our service. You will however need permission from your landlord for the installation.

If you want to see more about what an installation entails take a look at our handy guide!

To check if our service is available in your area, pop your address into our postcode checker.